

FUK Easter Migration 2024

First UK Full Moon H3 trip to Athens, Greece

Thurs 28th March - Mon 1st April 2024

Once again the FUKFMH3 gang are off to foreign parts to celebrate the ties between Easter and the Full Moon. In 2024 we're heading to Athens for some Easter warmth, and that great Greek food and drink. We had a wonderful time there in 2006, and it's about time we went back.

The weekend is a do it yourself event, and all are welcome. There is no upfront fee, although there will be moderate charges when we are there to cover essentials!

If you fancy joining us you need to :

- a) Book your own flight to Athens from an airport to suit yourself
- b) Book yourself into the Hash hotel. The recommended hotel is Plaka Hotel, (7, Kapnikareas & Mitropoleos Street, GR 10556 Athens <http://www.plakahotel.gr> or Booking.com). Plaka is 200m from Monastiraki square and 250m from Monastiraki Station. Alternatives are Hermes or Athos nearby.
- c) Email Tops and Windsock (windsock@btinternet.com) to let us know that you are coming.

Key dates are Maundy Thursday 28th March - Easter Monday 1st April. However some of us will be there from Tuesday (or earlier), and staying later.

Trails will accommodate both runners, and the less athletic, and there will be plenty of beer stops to keep everyone refreshed.

Although not fully planned yet we the provisional timetable is as follows.
